Working Group Nr. 3

Trans Border Cooperation and Experience Exchange in Central and Eastern Europe: EU states and the Six Eastern European Partners (approx. 30 min panellists – 2 h discussion and work on recommendations. Each presentation 5-7 min)

(Meeting room “Londona” and “Tallina”)

EU and non-EU Central and Eastern European States share common experience of rebuilding their states and societies after breakdown of the Soviet Communist bloc. Thus, cooperation within the region is vital so that the countries that have advanced more on the path of reforms can share their best practices and solutions, and support their neighbours, both directly and in the framework of the EU and other international organizations.

This panel will focus on ways to promote cross-border cooperation, including programmes and instruments; cross-border advocacy; most efficient methods for exchange of experience, etc.

Moderated by Balázs Jarábik, Associate Fellow at the Central European Policy Institute (CEPI), and Visiting Scholar at the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, Slovakia

SESSION 3: Supporting Civil Society in the Neighbourhood: Capacity, Instruments, Good Practice from the EU

(45 min panellists – 45 min discussion)

(Main conference room)

In order to promote its sustainability and influence, civil society in the Neighbourhood needs constant support from abroad. The European Union as a whole, its Member States and organizations have put in place a complicated net of support instruments, but this should be reviewed and systematized. What are the best means to strengthen civil society's capacity? What are the pluses and minuses of the existing instruments, and how these should be complemented in order to better fit the needs of the partners? How exactly do we exchange best practice? How civil society from the Neighbourhood can best engage in developing the EU's policies?

Moderated by Mārtiņš Mūrnieks, Program Officer, Black Sea Trust, German Marshall Fund of the US, Romania

SESSION 4: Re-Vitalising the Neighbourhood and the Vision and Tasks for the Eastern Partnership

(Main conference room)

Presentation of the recommendations

Eastern Partnership is a work constantly in progress. What have we learned over the past years, and how exactly should we proceed with the European Neighbourhood Policy review? What should be the main priorities for dealing with the Eastern European Partners, and specifically, how do we support civic activism and civic initiatives in the partner states? Do we need a new grand initiative, or changes of a more practical nature? This panel will provide a more general overview and a strategic look forward.

Moderated by Jeff Lovitt, Executive Director of PASOS, Czech Republic
